

XMRadio is a service that is paid for by XMRadio customers. While I listen to my XM radio much of the time I still tune into local broadcast stations for local entertainment and information including weather and traffic information. I believe the action of the NAB is frivolous, that XM Radio does not pose a threat to local broadcasters and the action of the NAB should be dismissed.